9 v.
10 UNKNOWN,
11 Defendant.

12 Case No. 22-cv-02578-NC
13 ORDER OF DISMISSAL
14 Re: Dkt. No. 5

15
16 Plaintiff, a prisoner at the R.J. Donovan Correctional Facility in San Diego,
17 California, sent a letter to the Chief Judge of this District regarding unanswered
18 communications to the Clerk's Office. See Dkt. No. 1. Plaintiff stated that his "Complaint
19 is . . . [regarding] written requests" for "1983 packets." Id.
20

21 In an effort to protect Plaintiff's rights, the Clerk of the Court opened a new matter
22 in Plaintiff's name. That same day, the Clerk sent Plaintiff a notice that Plaintiff needed to 23 file a formal complaint in order to pursue this matter. See Dkt. No. 2.

24 In response, Plaintiff filed a letter stating that "[t]here has been a mistake," that his
25 letter "was not to be filed as a civil complaint," and that he has received the needed
26 documents. Dkt. No. 5. Plaintiff stated that "[he]'d like to correct" the error that led to the 27 opening of this action. Id.
28

1 Because Plaintiff never intended to initiate a civil action in this District, the Court
2 will grant Plaintiff's request and dismiss this matter. No filing fee will be due for this
3 action.

4 The Clerk shall close the file.
